Native American Storyteller Thawn Sherente Harris

Monday, August 2, 1:30 p.m.
Storyteller Thawn Harris shares his Narragansett culture through traditional song, dance and legends. Thawn Harris lives together with his wife and their four children adjacent to their tribal lands where they pass on the values and cultural life ways of their people. Thawn has shared his culture with the greater community for the past decade while working to complete his degree at the University of Rhode Island. Following in the traditions of his ancestors, Thawn plays the cedar flute and hand-drum, is a social dancer and singer, as well as a former world champion of the Eastern War Dance. Free tickets to this event are available in the Children's Dept. beginning July 26.

Chris & Carol's Storytelling

Runs from August 10-27. For more information or to register, please contact the Children's Dept. at 767-4122.

Kindergarten storytelling, Tuesdays at 1:30 pm
1st and 2nd grade storytelling, Wednesdays at 1:30 pm
3rd & 4th grade storytelling, Thursdays, 1:30 pm

Violence, Veils, and Bloodlines: Reporting from War Zones

Thursday, August 26, 7 p.m.
Woonsocket native, Louis J. Salome, will discuss his memoir, Violence, Veils, and Bloodlines: Reporting from War Zones, which details his life as a journalist reporting from some of the most dangerous locations in the world. Mr. Salome was a foreign correspondent reporting from volatile areas such as Belfast, Iraq, Kabul, Bosnia, Somalia, Jerusalem, Russia and Pakistan. This program is free and open to the public.

Northern Rhode Island Camera Club

Thursday, August 5, 7-9 p.m.
This purpose of this group is for people interested in photography to get involved locally. We hope to plan workshops, field trips, meetings, and competitions. Visit their website at www.nricc.net.

Live & Learn

Wednesdays, 9:30-11:30 a.m.
The Live & Learn program is designed specifically for person who have been diagnosed with early memory loss. It focuses on maintaining the quality of one's life as they learn new ways to compensate for changes in memory through memory enhancement activities, physical exercise, social interaction, camaraderie and just plain fun. Simultaneously, the program provides time for the family members/care partners to pursue their own interests while their loved ones are engaged in enjoyable and meaningful activities with the guidance of a trained facilitator. For more information, please contact Marge Angilly at 421-0008 or Marge.Angilly@alz.org.

Monday Afternoon at the Movies

Mondays, 2 p.m.
Enjoy an afternoon of classic films. Call the Reference Desk for a list of titles at 767-4124.

Anime Night

Wednesdays, 6-8 p.m.
Anime is a unique form of Japanese storytelling through animation. Join fellow otaku for an evening of popular anime series and films. For ages 12-18.

Creative Writing Group

Wednesdays, 7:30 p.m.
Local writers will have an opportunity to meet weekly to share support, suggestions and criticism. This will be an informal gathering of both published and unpublished writers who might find a group useful for

FRIENDS OF THE LIBRARY NOTES

Donations of books, cds, dvds, vhs tapes, puzzles and board games for the Friends of the Library ongoing book sale located on the shelves by the front window are now being accepted. Damaged materials will not be accepted. If you are so kind to donate materials for the ongoing book sale, please bring them inside the building during the library's regular hours. Unfortunately, some well-meaning people are leaving items outside the door or in the book drop while the library is closed. If you need assistance bringing your items inside, please ask for a helping hand at the Circulation Desk.

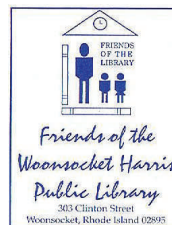

Be sure to shop the ongoing book sale! You could find something for the Summer Reading List and not worry about losing the book or late fees!

The Friends of the Library are always looking for new members! Meetings are the third Thursday of every month at 7 p.m. Please join us!

New DVDs

Crazy Heart. DVD Drama CRA

This is a powerful story of a country music star's rocky road to redemption. Bad Blake (Jeff Bridges) is a boozy, broken-down singer who reaches for salvation, with the help of Jean (Maggie Gyllenhaal), a journalist who discovers the real man behind the music. But will Bad's hard living ways cost him his last chance at a comeback?

Nine (DVD Musical NIN)

Arrogant, self-centered movie director Guido Contini (Daniel Day-Lewis) find himself struggling to find meaning, purpose, and a script for his latest film endeavor. Escaping to a seaside resort, he attempts to restore equilibrium to his personal and professional existence by drawing inspiration from the women in his life.

Old Dogs. DVD Comedy OLD

Charlie (John Travolta) and Dan (Robin Williams) are two best friends who, together, have built a successful marketing empire. Their lives are turned upside down when they are charged with the care of seven-year-old twins while on the verge of a big business deal. Dan and Charlie learn as much from the kids as vice versa.
